Annual Chocolate Show

I'm sure you all love chocolate. Who doesn't? But how many of you would like to wear it? Don't worry! You can still wear your fabulous silk dress or classic Italian suit, as you can't buy chocolate clothes yet. But at this year's Chocolate Show in New York you can see variety of "delicious" chocolate clothes and accessories, from formal dresses to lovely hats and bags.

For the more traditional of you, there are over 50 different types of chocolate to choose from. Famous chefs and chocolate makers present great recipes for your favourite chocolate desserts. And not only that! You can actually help the chefs prepare one of the recipes. And don't worry about children. They can make art using – what else? -chocolate at "Children's Corner".

So, don't miss this year's Chocolate Show! It's from November 13th to November 16th at the Metropolitan Pavillion, 125W 18th Street. To get there take the subway or the bus to 18th Street and then walk towards 6th Avenue.

1. At the show people can see chocolate dresses only. _____
2. Chefs show visitors how to make chocolate desserts. _____
3. Children can help the chefs prepare something. _____
4. The Chocolate Show is on for three days. _____
5. You can go to this year's show only by bus. _____
